September 3, 1928.

Bureau of Vital Statistics,
Boise, Idaho.

Dear Sirs:

I enclose herein Certificate of Birth of my son,
Lester Keene Fleming, as of September 13, 1909.

I was unable to secure the services of a physician at the time, Dr. E. E. Fry of Bonners Ferry being alone and unable to leave his patients there.

The woman in attendance is now deceased and there is no one available who is conversant with the exact circumstances, except myself and wife.

Should you require any further data I shall be glad to supply same, if in my power.

Respectfully,

A. J. Fleming

Filed April 1932 Registrar.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for ensuring transparency and accountability in the organization's operations.

2. The second part of the document outlines the various methods and tools used to collect and analyze data. It highlights the need for consistent data collection procedures and the use of reliable analytical tools to derive meaningful insights from the data.

3. The third part of the document focuses on the implementation of data-driven decision-making processes. It describes how the organization uses the collected data to identify trends, assess risks, and make informed decisions that align with its strategic goals.

4. The fourth part of the document addresses the challenges and limitations of data analysis. It acknowledges that while data provides valuable information, it is not always perfect and may be subject to errors or biases. Therefore, it is crucial to interpret the data with caution and consider multiple perspectives.

5. The fifth part of the document discusses the future of data analysis and the role of emerging technologies. It mentions that advancements in artificial intelligence and machine learning are expected to significantly enhance the capabilities of data analysis, allowing for more complex and accurate insights.

6. The sixth part of the document provides a summary of the key findings and conclusions. It reiterates the importance of data in driving organizational success and the need for continuous improvement in data collection and analysis practices.

7. The seventh part of the document includes a list of references and sources used in the research. It cites various academic papers, industry reports, and internal documents that provided the foundation for the analysis.

8. The eighth part of the document contains a list of appendices, which include additional data, charts, and detailed calculations. These appendices provide further support for the findings and conclusions presented in the main body of the document.

9. The ninth part of the document is a conclusion that summarizes the overall purpose and objectives of the study. It states that the goal was to explore the effectiveness of data-driven decision-making in the organization and to provide recommendations for future improvements.

10. The tenth part of the document is a final section that includes a list of acknowledgments and a list of authors. It expresses gratitude to the individuals and organizations that supported the research and identifies the primary authors of the document.

Dr. Rolf of Mullan, Idaho, was called to attend the above birth. He did not arrive until after birth and Mrs. Bell, the trained nurse, made the delivery. Dr. Rolf stated he would record the birth, but it is in doubt if he did, as he was not called during the period of recuperation. Mrs. Bell left town shortly afterwards, and I am unable to locate her. Unless Dr. Rolf has moved or died within the last several years, he is still practicing in Mullan, Idaho.

RECEIVED
SEP 8 1940

Dear Sir:

May I have a certified copy of my birth certificate?

I was born December 11, 1909 at Grangeville and my mother's name was Edythe Christina Rauenzahn, formerly Mrs. Fred Cossett Smalley until divorced October 26, 1909 in the Superior Court of the State of Washington for Spokane County.
Mr. Fred Cossett Smalley was my father's name but he waived all rights and claim to any child born of this wedlock and ~~was~~ thought, I believe, had this birth recorded, according to law under the name of:

Daniel Arthur Rauen Zahn.

DELAYED REGISTRATION LAW

(1937 Session Laws, Chapter 139, Section 4)

Where the birth of a child born prior to the effective date of Chapter 191, 1911 Session Laws, has not been recorded, or in case of failure to report any birth which has occurred subsequent to such date, such report may be received and filed by the local registrar for record in the Bureau of Vital Statistics for the purposes and uses prescribed in Chapter 2, Title 38, Idaho Code Annotated, when such report is accompanied by a certificate of the attending physician or midwife, or by affidavits of the father or mother of the child, or if neither father or mother of the child is living or accessible, of the nearest of kin or guardian, or some person having direct knowledge in the premises.

Use only BLACK Ink or BLACK Record typewriter ribbon in completing this certificate. Mail COMPLETED certificate in envelope bearing FIRST CLASS postage to State Bureau of Vital Statistics, Boise, Idaho, for filing. No charge for filing. Each certified copy requires an advance payment of fifty cents, money order or coin.
